CROSSING GUARD APPRECIATION DAY

Do you know the name of the crossing guard that helps you get to school each day? Do you wave and say hello each morning and afternoon as you cross the street?

Crossing Guard Appreciation Day is just around the corner, so next time you see your crossing guard, offer a special thanks for helping to keep you safe,

Crossing guards are an important member of your school community, teaching pedestrian safety skills to all family members. They work in unfavorable weather conditions and potentially hazardous situations to keep you safe. . . So, be sure to say

Thanks! to these special folks!
